

"Announcing the 6th Batch of our annual certification – The Certified Diversity Professional"

Come join the growing breed of Internationally Certified Diversity Professionals in India!

- Powered by Interweave in collaboration with DTUI , USA

Interweave offers you a unique opportunity: a One-of-its-kind Certified Diversity Professional (CDP) Certification. We've partnered with Diversity Training University International (DTUI)* and have tailored this certification for the Indian work scenario. Given the ambiguity and travel restrictions that are likely to be our extended reality in the immediate future, we have taken this course entirely virtual, without compromising the curriculum or the learning. Whether you're a diversity leader or a professional interested in honing your skills, the CDP Certification provides a holistic learning experience, thereby unlocking career pathways for your future. Get started now and emerge as an organizational change expert!

What's the journey like?

* - DTUI has been certifying diversity professionals at a distance since 1998.

What's in it for me?

- Develop competence as a DE&I practitioner
- Understand how to assess organizational inclusion barriers
- Get insights on how to solve specific organizational DE&I challenges
- Acquire techniques, models and ideas to facilitate conversations around equity
- Learn from international experts and seasoned Indian practitioners

What's different about it?

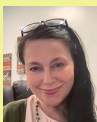

- One-of-its-kind certification in Asia
- End-to-end virtual learning experience structure with online classes and classroom sessions
- Module-wise conference calls to discuss and learn from national and international practitioners
- Access to a 50-plus strong and active alumni network

Testimonials

Undergoing CDP has been an amazing journey... We started with small steps, identifying and discussing issues, root cause and finding solutions. During the programme we had discussions on "our own biases" and how not to act and sound biased. At the same time, influence our environment to go beyond biases. I used this at my organization under the programme called "Beyond Prism" which helped inculcate a more inclusive behavior. The step-by-step diagnostics learnt helped me develop D&I charter and clear roadmap for next 5 years.

CDP has opened new horizons for me personally and professionally. It brought about shift in my language, conversations, perspectives and how I celebrate the differences in the world at large. It is an introspective journey and has opened me up to a network of passionate diversity and change leaders. I highly recommend the program for anyone with curiosity!.
